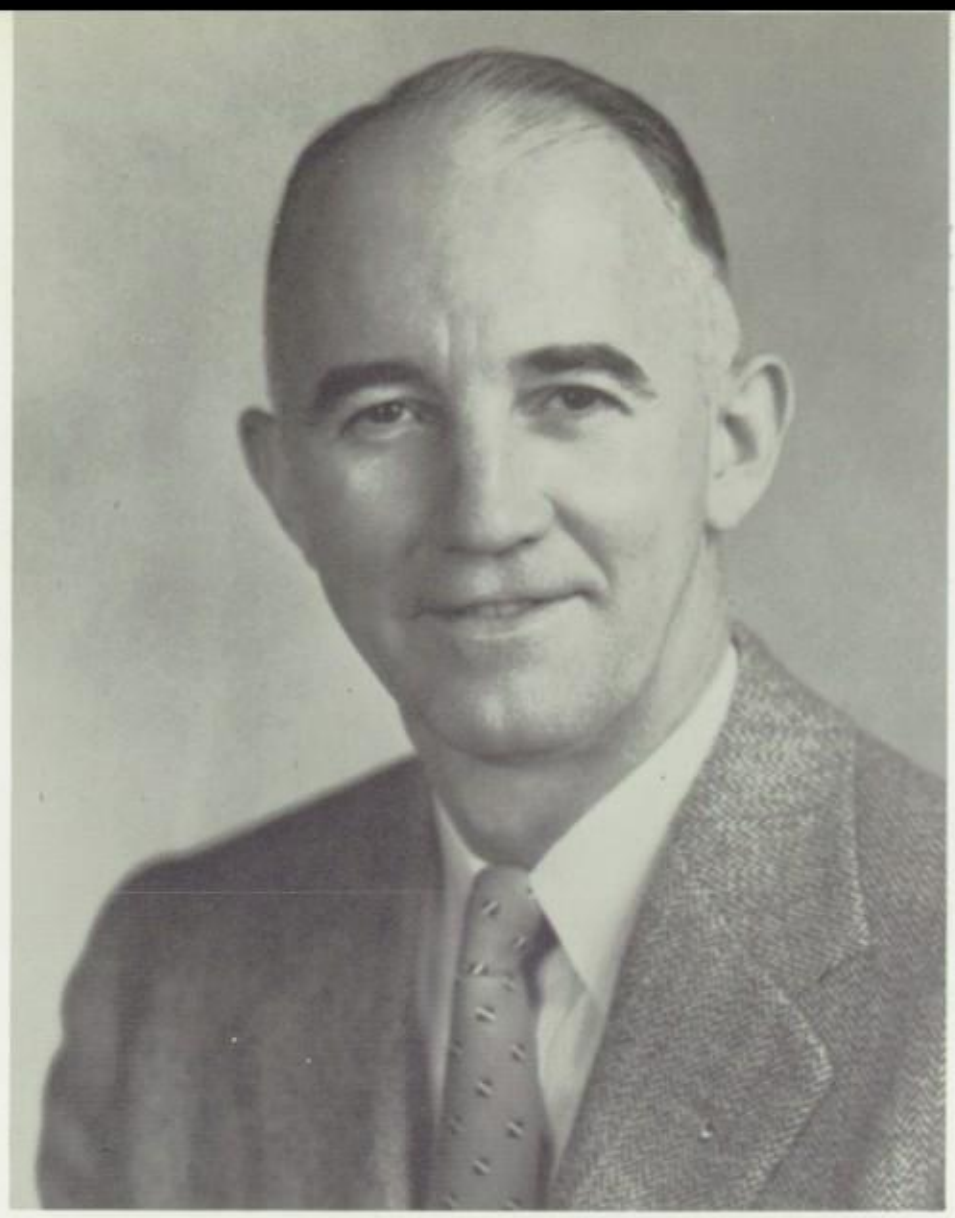
Foreword

Throughout the past years, our class has steadily progressed; elementary, junior high, and now the ultimate. We must take an even bigger step into the future. Some may fail, but whatever the obstacle may be, we the staff wish our Seniors, the class of '61, all the success it is able to maintain. And to other classes steadily advancing, we now present the 1961 Arrowhead, "the book of the future," and sincerely hope you will enjoy reading it as we have enjoyed presenting it.

The Staff

Dedication



During our school life many times we, the students, have the need for the help and advice of our principal. This need was always fulfilled by the great understanding and thoughtfulness of Mr. J. Hubert Radcliffe. Our happiest days were even brighter when we were greeted by his cheerful, ever-ready smile and friendly wave upon meeting him in the halls. His sincerity and devotion were a shining example to us all.

Our library is a tremendous source of help and information but it would mean little to us without the sincere interest and helpfulness of our librarian, Miss Mary T. Witte. She has been a constant inspiration in our school life with her continuous efforts and boundless enthusiasm as she worked with unlimited energy and dependability in our school library.

To Mr. Radcliffe, who was not only a good principal but an excellent friend, and also to Miss Witte for her patience and personal sacrifices in the cause of education, we, the Class of 1961, proudly and gratefully dedicate our yearbook.

Class History

We, the graduating class of 1961, having reached the peak of high school success, have resolved to leave this remembrance of our high school life, so all may know what we have achieved.

We embarked on our high school life in the fall of 1957 as lowly freshmen. In that year we chose our course of study, held the Latin I Banquet, and presented the Thanksgiving assembly.

In our sophomore year, we were among the charter members of Troupe 1406 of the National Thespian Society. Roman influence stole into the school as the Latin II Class held a banquet and the sophomores won leading roles in the annual Christmas assembly. The social highlight of the year was the Sophomore Hop with the theme "Please Mr. Sun." Mr. J. Carter was our class advisor. At the close of the year the 10-A section held a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gainer, who had accepted teaching positions near Baltimore.

Upon entering our Junior year we were measured for our class rings. On November 20, 1959, the Junior Class Play, "Beauty and the Beef," was presented to a capacity audience. Adding to the joys of the Christmas season and wearing our newly-arrived class rings, many members of the class attended the first annual Christmas Dance. On May 27, amid a beautiful Japanese setting, we bade "Sayonara!" a Japanese good-bye, to the seniors of 1960 at the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Then suddenly we were seniors! The Christmas season brought with it our senior class pictures and the Second Annual Christmas Dance, honoring our Campus Queen, Judy Alter. Other "favorite daughters" of the Class of '61 given royal status were Hilda Frankenberry, Basketball Queen; Judy Geary, Sweetheart Queen; and Carol Boyce, Music Queen. On April 21, we presented our Senior Class Play, a musical comedy, "Golden River." This was the initial time a musical was presented at our school. Several seniors were initiated into the J. Hubert Radcliffe Chapter of the National Honor Society. The Business Department set a new record this year in graduating twenty students, the largest group ever to complete this course. Charles Wilhelm served as our senior class president. Our second semester was marred by sadness when Mr. Radcliffe, our principal, accepted a County Board of Education position and left Mt. Savage. In May, our busiest month to date, we honored our May Day Royalty, Susan Wilson and Keith Johnson, and held the Senior Farewell Dance. Later in the month during Commencement Week we were honored by the Junior Class at the Junior-Senior Prom, and attended Baccalaureate Service, followed by the faculty-sponsored Senior Tea on May 28. Then June 1, the day we had awaited for the last twelve years finally arrived, our Graduation Day!

We now look back with pride on the achievements and distinctions that have been bestowed upon us as a class and wish you, the future seniors, success for the coming years.

(No comment, please. We gathered the paper.)

Farewell, Dear Old Alma Mater!

We the staff of the 1961 Arrowhead in the behalf of all the seniors wish to express our sincere gratitude to all the people who have made this yearbook possible.

To Miss McDermitt, our advisor, we wish to express our appreciation for her help and sacrifices in the production of this book.

To all the students we hope this book will hold many treasured memories of our days at dear old Mount Savage.

OUR ALMA MATER

To our school among the mountains
With our little town,
May we ne'er forget the mem'ries
That still gather round.

Swell the chorus, let it echo
Over hill and dale;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail, Mount Savage, hail.

Crowning still the verdant hilltops
'Neath the azure blue,
Sends she forth her sons and daughters
Loyal, loving, true.
